

ActiveMat® Rocker

Get more active at the office and put your fidgeting feet to work with the ActiveMat Rocker. It combines the comfort and support of our popular anti-fatigue mats with a rocker bar to balance your feet on, letting you stretch and flex your feet, ankles, and legs while you work. The movement can also help to stimulate circulation and relieve stress. It's a great way to burn off that extra energy and keep you focused on your work, while sitting or standing (one foot at a time).
